THE VOICE OF CATHOLIC PRINCIPALS AND VICE-PRINCIPALS

TCPVA: A professional association representing Toronto Catholic elementary principals and vice-principals

CONTACTS:

- ♦ TCPVA Executive
- ♦ TCPVA Councillor
- ♦ TCPVA Executive Assistant:
Carole Clune-tcpva@sympatico.ca
- ♦ TCPVA Social Director:
John Nijmeh - john@nijmeh.ca
- ♦ TCPVA link: www.cpcp.on.ca

The OBJECTIVES of the Association:

- ♦ To provide opportunities for members to improve and enhance their competence and Christian commitment as principals and vice-principals of Catholic schools
- ♦ To provide social activities for members and their guests
- ♦ To work collegially with all sectors of the Catholic community to promote the growth of Catholic Education
- ♦ To provide a voice for members on educational and professional issues

TCPVA MEETS WITH PARTNERS IN CATHOLIC EDUCATION CONSULTING WITH:

- ♦ TCDSB Senior Administrators
- ♦ Catholic Principals' Council of Ontario (CPCO)
- ♦ Institute of Catholic Education (ICE)
- ♦ Toronto English Catholic Teachers (TECT)
- ♦ Toronto Catholic Secondary School Principals' Association (TCSSPA)
- ♦ Secondary School Vice-Principals' Association (SSVPA)

TCPVA assumes a strong advocacy role acting as the collective voice of Toronto principals and vice-principals on issues affecting Catholic education. TCPVA is now recognized by senior staff and board as the representative of all elementary administrators.

TCPVA Membership Benefits

- ♦ Representation locally on issues affecting principals and vice-principals
- ♦ Regular updates on important issues
- ♦ Representation provincially on the Catholic Principals' Council of Ontario through the Council of District Representatives
- ♦ Subsidies to approved conferences
- ♦ Excellent professional development programs at little or no cost to members
- ♦ Opportunity for support and networking with experienced colleagues
- ♦ A number of social activities of interest to principals and vice-principals are available at no cost
- ♦ Income tax receipt for annual dues.

TCPVA: PARTNERING IN PROFESSIONAL LEADERSHIP

All members of TCPVA are bound by the duties and obligations of the Association's Constitution.
