Message from the IEL Chair, Joseph Geiser

The Ontario Institute for Education Leadership \(IEL\) is a virtual organization that promotes and mobilizes research on effective leadership practices. As a continued support to school and system leaders, the IEL has expanded the Personal Leadership Resources section of the website to include Ideas Into Action Publications and supporting tips sheets.

In addition, based on the French-language Education in Ontario: A Fresh Perspective on Leadership Practices study, a PowerPoint presentation has been developed which provides an overview of promising leadership practices enacted by French-language leaders. School and system leaders across all four sectors of education are encouraged to draw on these resources as a support to their leadership learning activities.

The IEL website offers a wealth of information to help guide your work!
